

Institution Name: Gold Coast Hospital and Health Service

Address: 1 Hospital Boulevard, off Parklands Drive, Southport, Gold Coast, Queensland, Australia
E-mail: GCHUrogyn@health.qld.gov.au

Program Director: Associate Professor Malcolm Frazer
Program Faculty: Dr Vivien Wong, Dr Bernadette Brown

Trainees Per Year: 1
Program Length: 2 years maximum at this site
Year Program Initiated: 2004

Specialty Certification: Certification in Urogynaecology (CU) to approved trainees only (the CU is a 3 year training program overseen by the Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists)

Special Interest Areas: Pelvic floor imaging, native tissue vaginal repairs, laparoscopic surgery. The Statewide Pelvic Mesh Service for Queensland is based at this hospital (QPMS).

Program Description: The program has been running for over 14 years and is accredited by the Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists (RANZCOG). Trainees are accepted onto the program determined by a RANZCOG approved interview. Preference is given to Australian and New Zealand candidates who fulfil the residency criteria as outlined on the RANZCOG subspecialty training website (www.ranzcog.edu.au).