

Institution Name: Sheffield Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust

Address: Urogynaecology Unit, Jessop Wing, Tree Root Walk, Sheffield S10 1NT, South Yorkshire, England

Telephone: 0114 2268167

E-mail: Stephen.radley@sth.nhs.uk

Program Director: Professor Stephen Radley

Program Faculty: Miss Swati Jha, Mr Andrew Farkas, Prof Christopher Chapple (Urology), Prof Steven Brown (Colorectal Surgery)

Trainees Per Year: 1, with additional studentships

Program Length: 2 - 3 years

Special Interest Areas: Recurrent pelvic organ prolapse and urinary incontinence surgery; laparoscopic pelvic floor surgery; urogenital fistula; prosthesis (mesh / graft) complication (removals); non-mesh alternative surgery. Quality of life & outcomes research, innovative approaches to patient assessment, diagnosis and treatment of pelvic floor disorders.

Special Interest Areas: Reconstructive pelvic surgery, closely linked to urology and colorectal services, Recurrent pelvic organ prolapse and urinary incontinence; laparoscopic pelvic floor surgery, mesh complication & removal surgery, non-mesh surgery, paediatric and adolescent gynaecology. Web-based quality of life measurement.

Program Description: 2-3 year programme within multidisciplinary team. Programme covers RCOG training requirements (conservative & operative therapies) with strong clinical and research components.

Specialty Certification: Subspecialty Urogynaecology accreditation Royal College Obstetricians & Gynaecologists (UK)