

Institution Name: Addenbrooke's Hospital, Cambridge University Hospitals NHS Foundation

Address: Cambridge University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust Cambridge Biomedical Campus
Telephone: 01223 245151
E-mail: mark.slack@addenbrookes.nhs.uk

Program Director: Mark C. Slack
Program Faculty: Mark C. Slack

Trainees Per Year: 1
Program Length: 2-3 years

Specialty Certification: Subspecialty accreditation in Urogynaecology (Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists)
Special Interest Areas: Vaginal and abdominal (open and laparoscopic) prolapse surgery, mesh augmentation prolapse surgery, continence surgery, treatment of intractable OAB, clinical trials, qualitative research.

Program Description: There are 2 Urogynaecology clinics per week and a Urogynaecology MDT meeting held once a week. Clinics also include a once monthly pelvic floor clinic run jointly with Urologists and Colorectal Surgeons and a once monthly perineal clinic (OASIS). Consultant-led Urodynamics clinics are run twice a week alongside nurse led flow and urodynamics clinics. There are 3 theatre sessions per week and 4 theatre sessions every other week. Surgery includes primary, recurrent, complex reconstructive Urogynaecology/Female Urology cases. The training program is run in accordance with the RCOG curriculum.